BY THORTON KANE

WELL WHADDYA KNOW . . . Arlene Francis has snagged the lead in Feb. 8's "The Big Splash." Jack Carson co-stars . . . KTLA's "Debbie Drake" will give Jack LaLanne some real competition—especially if the men viewers get a vote . . . In the works is a one-hour documentary, "The Age of the Atom." The show will make use of British and Russian films as well as ours and will stress the peaceful uses of nuclear energy . . . Lori Nelson of "National Velvet" was ticketed for jaywalking in Burbank, whereupon the stage crew passed the hat to pay her fine. So now she's poor? . . . Peter "Lawman" Brown must be making it! He just put $15,000 cash down on a $75,000 Beverly Canyon shack . . . "Las Vegas Beat," new series starring Peter Graves, starts rolling and will air on NBC . . . John Gunther's "High Road" is a must see for Friday nights. One of the best travel-documentaries, it has top box-office names in regular guestings . . . "Acapulco" debuts later this month, featuring jazzman Bobby Troup as a regular cast member. Doesn't anybody want his wife, luscious Julie London? . . . The government has given clearance to six of the Astronauts to appear on an NBC spec. What happened, don't they like number seven? . . . Phil Harris and frau Alice Faye are dickering for a series at Desilu. If it pans out, let's hope they get Frankie Remley too . . . Elvis Presley's asking $325,000 to do a 60-minute spectacular in the spring—plus costs of guest stars. Elvis says he'll donate the whole bundle to the USS Arkansas Memorial Fund, if he gets a taker . . . From Monaco, Princess Grace says the favorite shows of her tots are "Cochise" and "Jungle Jim," but our Caroline thinks "Bozo's" the end . . . Aldo Ray is in Mexico City to do a pilot for series titled "Correspondent at Large," which if it clicks, will film each show in a separate world locale. (Just watch out for those Cubans, boys.) . . . If you see Fred Flintstone walking along the street, don't panic. The almost life-sized mechanical man is a promotion stunt for the "Flintstones" series. It talks, too!

THE ISLANDERS—Zak Malloy (James Philbrook) stands ready to fly his plane anywhere, any time on Channel 7's adventure show, Sundays at 9:30 p.m.

Switches To

Dr. Edward N. O'Neil, Associate Professor of Classics at the University of Southern California, switches to the staff side of "Men and Myths" for a look at Hera, the female counterpart to Zeus, and Demeter, the great mother-earth goddess, in KNXT's early-morning classroom series Tuesday, Feb. 14 and Thursday, Feb. 16 (6:30 to 7 a.m.) on Channel 2.

Hi-Lo's on Channel 13

The Hi-Lo's appear as special guests when the "Music of Broadway" is featured by Mantovani, Friday, February 17, 8:30 p.m., KCOP, Channel 13.

The internationally famous Mantovani orchestra performs "Hey, There!" from "Pajama Game," "I Talk to the Trees" from "Paint Your Wagon," "The Nearness of You," "To My Love" and "It's Almost Like Being in Love" from "Brigadoon."

The Hi-Lo's offer a medley of Rodgers and Hart favorites, and the Mantovani dancers also perform. John Conte hosts.

THE TWILIGHT ZONE—Glamorous Barbara Nichols is seen as a nightclub dancer with realistic dreams in "Twenty Two," Friday on Channel 2 at 10:00 p.m.

'HE'S LYING'

This is probably the most common phrase used by individuals when confronted by a conflicting story unto their own.

Well, KHJ-TV will give one and all the chance to prove or disprove—which ever the case may be—the other side of the story, when it debuts "Lie Detector," on February 24th at 7 p.m.

The weekly half hour program will give people an opportunity to match wits and stories with the delicate and highly introspective, Lie Detector.

Hosted by Ralph Andrews, the show will be completely unrehearsed and aside from the Lie Detector will feature William A. Schmidt, B.A., LL.B., as the custodian of the instrument.

Schmidt is considered by law enforcement agencies throughout the country as one of the very best in the field.

He was one of the first users of the Lie Detector back in the mid-forties.

THAT HOLLYWOOD — man-about-town Duffield Hamilton Holmes goes shopping and is waited on by pretty Elaine DuPont. Duffy is a TV star now. He's host for the "Winter Film Festival" Monday through Friday, 11:30 p.m., on KTTV, Channel Eleven.

Monday—Friday 7 p.m.
